

STUDENT DRESS

443.1

The subject of student attire and grooming is determined to be a personal matter between child and parent or guardian; however, in those instances in which the safety or the health and welfare of the student or other students is jeopardized, or if educational distraction becomes a factor, or if damage to school property is involved, the principal shall determine the suitability of the attire and grooming.

Approved      01-18-71
Reviewed     06-21-99