

DISTRIBUTION OF RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL LITERATURE 853

It shall be the policy of the Board of Education that distribution of religious or political literature shall be prohibited within or on the grounds of each school within the District unless such literature is to be used in a Board approved course of study, to achieve state literary educational objectives. No religious or political material may be used to promote or detract from any specific religious group or denomination or to promote or detract from any political party or individual.

Approved 12/10/74
Reviewed 06/19/00